(iv) Appointed probationers in order of seniority, junior first;

(v) Full members not coming under any of the above categories in order of seniority, junior first.

Explanation.—For the purposes of the rules, members of the Malacca Survey Subordinate Service, the Malacca Survey Subordinate Service (Temporary) Service and the Malacca Land Revenue Subordinate Service shall rank for seniority with one another as if all those persons under the Crown had been employed in the Malacca Survey Subordinate Service.

5. Appointed discharge or retention.—Any person who is discharged or retained under these rules, shall, within one month after the date at which he was referred of the order of discharge or retention, be entitled to appeal against such order to the authority to whom an appeal from an order discharging him would lie, on the ground that these rules have not been complied with.

6. Order of re-employment.—(i) (a) When specified rules are required for a post he may not be deemed to rule 3, selection for appointment therein shall be restricted to persons discharged or retained under these rules from such posts in the same or higher than under clause (b) and (c) of rule 4, as long as such persons desirous of such appointment are available.

Provided that no person who has been discharged shall be appointed under these rules unless he fulfils the conditions of appointment, if any, derived by him as discharge to such station as the Provincial Government may, by general or special order, direct.

Provided also that if the appointing authority considers it undesirable that any specified person should be appointed under these rules:—

(b) In case such person on the date of his discharge or retention had not acquired a right to be appointed to the post, the appointing authority shall be at liberty not to select him; and

(c) In other cases, the appointing authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing and communicated to the person concerned, refuse to appoint him; and an appeal shall lie from such refusal as if it were an order of dismissal.

(d) Appointment of candidates in any post in which a person who has been discharged or retained under these rules shall be made in the reverse order to that in which they were discharged or awarded leave such under these rules.

7. Any person eligible for re-employment.—When an appeal from an order discharging him would lie, on the ground that these rules have not been complied with, such person shall be entitled to appeal to the authority to whom an appeal from an order discharging him would lie, on the ground that these rules have not been complied with, as if it were an order of dismissal.

8. Any person discharged under these rules who before such discharge was a full member of or appointed probationer in a service, shall be eligible for appointment to any other service to transfer for which he is qualified as if he was a full member of the service from which he was discharged.

Amendments to the special rules for the Madras Agricultural Subordinate Service.

Port St. George, January 20, 1941.
(G.O. No. 12, Madras.)

No. 29.

2. In view of the fact that the production of opium in this country is an urgent war emergency, the Government of India are further pleased to give its assistance to all who wish to undertake the introduction in India that, providing their claims are concerned on sound business lines, they will be given such measure of protection against unfair competition from outside India after the war as may be necessary to enable them to maintain their enterprise.

The Coffee Market Expansion Rules, 1940, and bylaws of the Board.

Part XI, Chapter, January 11, 1941
(G.O. No. 80, Development).

No. 25.

The following regulations of the Government of India are reproduced:—

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

COFFEE CHARGE.

New Delhi, the 21st December 1940

No. 531 (S-IV. (2-E) (2))—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 4 of the Coffee Market Expansion Ordinance, 1939 (No. XIII of 1939), the Central Government after consulting the Indian Coffee Market Expansion Board is pleased to make the following rules, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Coffee Market Expansion Rules, 1940.
2. In these rules:—
(1) "Controller" means the Controller of Coffee appointed under section 8 of the Ordinance;
(2) "Export" means a sale on foot in the schedule appended to these rules;
(3) "Ordinance" means the Coffee Market Expansion Ordinance, 1939 (No. XIII of 1939).

3. The three persons to be nominated on the Board by the Central Government under section 4 of the Ordinance shall represent respectively the following interests:—

- (a) The coffee growing industry in the Mysore State;
- (b) The Shreevathi Planters' Association, Tanjore;
- (c) The coffee trade interests.

4. Where a member of the Board dies, resigns or is removed or ceases to reside in India or becomes incapable of acting, the Central Government may, on the recommendation of the authority or the body which was entrusted to elect the first nomination under section 4 of the Indian Coffee Code Act, 1935 (XIV of 1935), or under the Ordinance as the case may be, or where such recommendation is not given within a reasonable time, then on its own initiative, nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

5. The Controller shall have—

- (a) power to inspect, himself or to appoint agents for the purpose of inspecting any registered estate or licensing, issuing, establishment, and to examine the books of any such estate or establishment;
- (b) power to issue a permit for the re-exportation of coffee from India to British India;
- (c) power to issue licences for sale of unroasted coffee or in respect of curing establishment;
- (d) power to require the Board, the Executive Committee, or any sub-committee to deliver before him, producing a reference to the Central Government, on any of the following matters:—
(1) duration of the crop of a registered estate on the basis of percentage to be allotted to each estate;
(2) administration and marketing of the surplus crop;
(3) issue of licences to registered owners for the sale on the Indian market of unroasted coffee;
(4) licensing of coffee curing establishments;
(5) issue of a statement with the various coffee;
(6) modification or correction of contracts;
(7) borrowing of any money by the Board;

and
(e) such other powers as may be delegated to him by the Board.

6. The Board shall elect a Vice-Chairman from among its members and may elect to him such functions as it thinks fit.

7. A member of the Board may resign his office by letter addressed to the Chairman of the Board.

8. (1) Before a member of the Board leaves India—

- (a) he shall intimate to the Chairman of the Board the date of his departure from India and the date of his expected return to India; and
- (b) if he intends to be absent from India for a longer period than six months, he shall tender his resignation.

(2) If any member leaves India without taking either of the courses mentioned in sub-rule (1), he shall be deemed to have resigned with effect from the date of his departure from India.

9. Any member shall be deemed to have vacated his seat on the Board—

- (a) if he becomes bankrupt or insolvent or suspends payment or compounds with his creditors; or
- (b) if he is convicted of any offence which is punishable under the Indian Penal Code (Act XLV of 1860), and is under the operation of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1938 (Act V of 1938), non-bailable.

10. The Board shall meet at least twice during the period of the Ordinance and shall hold its meetings at Bangalore or at such other place as the Chairman may think fit.

11. The Chairman of the Board may at any time call a meeting of the Board and shall do so if a requisition for that purpose is presented to him by ten members of the Board.

12. No business shall be transacted at a meeting of the Board unless there are present at least ten members.

13. All questions which the Board is required to take into consideration shall be referred to the members of the Board, either at its meetings or by circulation of papers.

Provided that when a question is referred by circulation of papers any three members of the Board may require that the question be referred to a meeting, and thenceforward a reference shall be made to a meeting of the Board.

14. A record shall be maintained of all business transacted by the Board or of its Committees or Sub-Committees and copies of such records shall be submitted to the Central Government.

15. (1) The Chairman of the Board shall cause to be prepared and circulated among the members at least ten days before a meeting of the Board a list of business to be considered at that meeting.

(2) No business not on the list shall be considered without the permission of the Chairman.

16. (1) Every question at a meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present and voting on that question.

(2) In the case of an equal division of votes the Chairman or the member presiding shall have a second or casting vote.

17. The Board shall within six months of the commencement of the Ordinance prepare a budget for the period of the Ordinance and shall submit it to the members of the Central Government.

18. The budget shall include three items of—
(a) the estimated opening balance;

(b) the estimated receipts from the various duties on export of coffee and the duty of excise on the internal sale of coffee;

(c) the estimated receipts from loans of money and from other sources;

(d) the proposed expenditures classified under such major heads as may be settled at a meeting of the Board.

19. Subject to the provisions of the Ordinance and these rules the Board may incur such expenditure as it thinks fit and may delegate to any of its members, sub-committees or officers or to the controller such financial powers as it considers necessary.

20. (1) The Board shall maintain accounts and expenditure relating to the period of the Ordinance.

(2) The audited statement of receipts and expenditures together with the auditor's report thereon shall be submitted to the Central Government.

3 Seven clear days at least before any meeting of the Board any of the following items of the intended meeting, signed by the Chairman or the Controller or Secretary shall be left at or posted to the usual place of residence of every member of the Board:

Provided that in case of urgency a special meeting may be summoned at any time by the Chairman who shall inform members of the subject matter for discussion and the reasons for which he considers it urgent. The ordinary business shall be transacted or transacted at such special meetings.

4 The Chairman shall preside at every meeting of the Board at which he is present, and in his absence the Vice-Chairman; if both be absent, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside over the meeting.

5 The Controller may attend any meetings of the Board but shall not have the power to vote.

6 A member of the Board who is not in the service of the Crown or of an Indian tribe shall be entitled to draw, in respect of any journey performed for the purpose of attending a meeting of the Board or of a duly constituted Committee or Sub-Committee thereof, travelling allowances at the following rates:—

- (a) for journeys by rail—(1) inclusive fares;
- (b) for journeys by road—(1) mileage per mile; and
- (c) lodging allowances at Rs. 15 per day including part of a day spent on the business of the Board.

7 Items as provided in section 5 of the Ordinances of appointment to posts of officers and servants of the Board shall be made by the Board.

Provided that no post of which the maximum salary is less than Rs. 1000 per annum or more shall be created without the previous sanction of the Central Government.

Provided further that the Board may by resolution designate to the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman, the Executive Committee, any Sub-Committee, or any officer of the Board, or the Controller, such of its present under the Ordinance as it may deem fit.

8 The authority competent to dismiss, suspend, promote or degrade an officer or servant of the Board shall be the authority empowered to appoint such officer or servant.

9 (1) The grant of leave, pay and allowances to officers and servants of the Board (other than persons employed Government servants including the Controller), whose services have been lost or transferred to the Board) shall be regulated by the Board, who may delegate such of its powers in this regard as it may deem fit to the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman, the Executive Committee, any Sub-Committee or any officer of the Board or the Controller.

(2) In exercising the powers conferred by clause (1) the Board shall, so far as may be, apply the principles of the Fundamental Rules and of the Supplementary Rules made by the Governor General in Council under the Fundamental Rules.

Provided that, in respect of officers engaged on contract, leave rules to be framed by the Board shall be decided with due regard to the provisions of the model leave rules framed by the Central Government for officers engaged on contract under their control.

10 Every with the previous sanction of the Central Government no travelling allowance shall be paid to any officer or servant of the Committee in event of the absence which would be admissible under the said Supplementary Rules to a Government servant of the corresponding grade.

11 The grant of leave, pay and allowances to permanent Government servants, including the Controller, whose services have been lost or transferred to the Board shall be regulated by the Central Government.

12 The Board shall appoint an Executive Committee consisting of—

- (a) the Chairman of the Board,
- (b) the Vice-Chairman of the Board,
- (c) the Controller, and
- (d) such other members of the Board.

13 The Chairman of the Board shall be an officer of the Board or of the Executive Committee and shall preside at all meetings of the Committee. In the absence of the Chairman at any meeting, the Controller or his nominee shall preside at such meeting.

14 Any person member in the Executive Committee shall be elected by the meeting members of the Executive Committee from amongst the members of the Board.

15 If any member of the Executive Committee is absent from India, the remaining members may in their discretion elect a person to represent a vacant vacancy and fill the same in accordance with by-law 16.

16 Four members of the Executive Committee present in person (including the Chairman if present) shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Executive Committee.

17 Meetings of the Executive Committee shall be convened by the Chairman or Secretary of the Board or by the Controller.

18 Seven clear days' notice of every meeting of the Executive Committee be given to each member.

Provided that, if the Chairman of the Board considers it necessary on the ground of urgency, any meeting of the Executive Committee may be held after giving such notice as he may deem sufficient.

19 In case of a difference of opinion among the members of the Executive Committee the opinion of the majority shall prevail.

20 If there be an equality of votes on any question to be decided by the Executive Committee, the president of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

21 Subject to such restrictions as may be imposed by the Board, the Executive Committee shall exercise all the powers of the Board in regard to the control and disposal of the funds of the Board, and such other powers as may be delegated to it by the Board.

22 The Executive Committee may receive any officer or servant appointed by the Board and whose duties involve financial responsibility, to furnish security for the faithful performance of his duties and may fix the amount and nature of the security as required.

23 (1) The Board may appoint sub-committees consisting of such number of members as it deems fit to deal with all or any of the following matters:—

(a) division of the work of a registered estate as far as the powers to be allotted to each estate.

(b) administration and marketing of the surplus land;

(c) issue of licenses to registered owners for the sale or lease or mortgage of awarded estates;

(d) levying of various establishments;

(e) fixing of a differential scale for valuing sales;

(f) modification or execution of contracts;

and

(g) borrowing of any money by the Board.

(2) The Controller shall convene the Chairman of any sub-committee appointed under clause (1) and shall have the power to convene all meetings of such sub-committee.

(3) If the Board does not appoint an appropriate sub-committee to deal with any of the matters referred to in sub-clause (a) to (g) of clause (1), the Chairman shall be taken by the Board on such matter without consulting the Controller.

In exercise of the powers conferred by paragraph (1) of sub-section (2) of section 214 of the Government of India Act, 1935, His Excellency the Governor of Madras is hereby pleased to make the following special rules:—

RULES.

1. The cadre of the Madras Electrical Subordinate Service shall be increased temporarily by one post of each order up to 30th March 1941 for performance of the work connected with the construction of dams, levees and plants in the Electricity Department. The said temporary post shall constitute a distinct class in the said service.

2. The general and special rules applicable to the holders of permanent posts in the said service shall apply to the holder of the said temporary post subject to the following considerations, namely:—

(a) Appointment to the said temporary post shall be by direct recruitment or by transfer.

(b) There shall be paid to the holder of the said temporary post a pay calculated in the scale of Rs. 100-0-0 to Rs. 150-0-0.

(c) No person shall be eligible for appointment to the said temporary post if he has attained the age of 35 years.

(d) No person shall be eligible for appointment to the said temporary post unless he (i) has obtained a completed intermediate School Leaving Certificate and (ii) has experience of at least three years in the service of a large electric supply undertaking and proficiency in work connected therewith. Provided persons shall be given to a candidate who has, in addition to the qualifications specified in items (i) and (ii) above, undergone a course of engineering studies at a recognized educational institution.

Explanation.—In this rule, the expression "the holder of the said temporary post" shall mean the person entitled against the temporary post.

D. D. WARREN,
Secretary to Government.

In the matter of the South Indian Pottery Trading Company, Limited (in liquidation).

Whereas I have reasonable cause to believe that the liquidator is acting and that the affairs of the company are fully wound up and the returns required to be made by the liquidator have not been made for a period of six consecutive months after notice from me demanding the returns, was sent by post to the company or to the liquidator at his last known place of business;

Whereas a notice, dated the 15th September 1940, was published on page 124 of Part II of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 18th October 1940, pursuant to section 247 (a) of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, to the effect that, unless cause were shown to the contrary before the expiration of three months from the date of that notice, the name of the said company would be struck off the register and that the said company would be dissolved;

And whereas the said company has not shown such cause within the time allowed which expired on the 15th December 1940;

Therefore, the name of the said company has, under section 247 (a) of the said Act, been struck off the register.

Madras, 24th January 1941

In the matter of the City Fund, Limited.

Whereas communications addressed to the City Fund, Limited, at its registered office at "Buddha-nagar," Pambal, Government Street, Fort St. George, Madras, remain unanswered;

And whereas it appears accordingly that the City Fund, Limited, is not carrying on business or is not in operation;

Notice is hereby given pursuant to section 247 (b) of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, that, unless cause is shown to the contrary before the expiration of three months from the date of this notice, the name of the said company will be struck off the register and the said company will be dissolved.

M. KRISHNAMURTHI,

Assistant Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

Madras, 15th January 1941.

In the matter of the Third Mills, Limited.

Whereas the company's records kept in their letter, dated 17th August 1940, stated that the company has not been functioning at all and that it is now in a defunct condition;

Whereas it appears accordingly that the Third Mills, Limited, was not carrying on business or was not in operation;

Whereas a notice, dated the 15th September 1940, was published on page 124 of Part II of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 18th October 1940, pursuant to section 247 (b) of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, to the effect that, unless cause were shown to the contrary before the expiration of three months from the date of that notice, the name of the said company would be struck off the register and the said company would be dissolved;

And whereas the said company has not shown such cause within the time allowed which expired on the 15th December 1940;

Therefore, the name of the said company has, under section 247 (b) of the said Act, been struck off the register.

P. A. SUBRAHMANYA, ATYAR,

Assistant Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

INDEX NUMBER OF WHOLESALE PRICES OF COMMODITIES IN MADRAS CITY FOR THE MONTH OF DECEMBER 1940.

A FALL OF ONE POINT.

The index number of wholesale prices for Madras City for December 1940 was set to 123 which is lower by one point than the index for the previous month. The index number for all food articles fell by four points to 119 whilst the index for the non-food articles rose by one point to 124.

2. Among food articles, the index number for cereals remained steady at 123. Pulses fell by four points to 120 owing to a general fall in the prices of all grades. Sugar and pepper advanced by four points to 64, vegetable oils decreased by eight points to 56 on account of a fall in the prices of all oils. Tea and coffee remained steady at 116. The index number and other articles of food group decreased by eight points to 117 due mainly to a fall in the prices of potatoes and bananas.

3. Under the non-food group, several oils remained unchanged at 135. Tobacco rose by two points to 81 due to an increase in the price of cigar and chewing and snuff qualities. Cottons fell by four points to 64, vegetable oils in the price of groundnut and cotton. The index for the textile group continued steady at 119. The mixed index and other group rose to 124 on account of a rise in the prices of new hides and skins as well. Metals appreciated by seven points to 120 on account of a rise in the prices of iron articles. Building materials group rose by two points to 111 due to an increase in the prices of cement. IV. The ships will be put up to auction in the order in which they are called, unless the selling officer sees reason to change that order.

V. The highest bid will be provisionally accepted by the selling officer subject to confirmation by the Collector. Such subsequent confirmation after the close of the sale or to be brought in within again has been drawn up a copy of it will be sent to any bidder who gives his name and address to the Collector and will be posted up at the Public Office.

VI. (a) The order of the Collector confirming a bid provisionally accepted by the selling officer must be filed within 24 hours of the date of the sale.

VI. (b) Every person whose bid is provisionally accepted shall—

(i) as soon as is required by the selling officer, or otherwise at the close of the day's sale, deposit, in addition to the deposit made under clause I, half a month's rent for each shop knocked down, in full, within the latest deposit receipt at the Public Office.

(ii) as soon as possible for writing (in a letter) for each shop knocked down to the rent and with a view to the Collector. The Collector will be bound to the rent offered by him for the location of the shop and a statement in the possession of the Collector to the satisfaction of the Collector of the amount of the property proposed to be sold, or in which he has an interest together with accurate and full details of circumstances, etc., therein.

(iii) within three days from the date of sale, deposit such further sum, as with the deposit already made under sub-clause (i) above will make up the whole amount of all shops knocked down, in full.

(iv) further if the Collector is not satisfied that any such purchaser can be trusted to pay his rent punctually and fully, he shall require him, in addition to making the deposit required under clause (i) (ii) above, to enter into the following bond, amount and value in full within the time specified by the Collector, i.e., within—

(a) in respect two months' rent of all shops knocked down to him; or

(b) to execute a mortgage of his immovable property in favour of the Government for all moneys that may become due under the terms of the contract with a power of sale in favour of the mortgagee in the event of default of payment thereof by the purchaser; or

(c) to execute a security or mortgage to be accepted by the Collector, who should execute a security bond for the due payment of all moneys that may become due by the purchaser under the terms of the contract and to execute a mortgage deed of his of his immovable property in favour of the Government for the payment of all moneys due under the contract by the purchaser with a power of sale in favour of the mortgagee in the event of default of payment thereof by the purchaser or by the Government.

If the Collector is not satisfied that the value of the immovable property involved in security by the purchaser under sub-clause (b) above is adequate, he shall require him to produce, in addition to mortgaging his property, a security or mortgage to be approved by the Collector, who shall execute a security bond for the balance of the moneys that may become due, and a mortgage deed of his or their property in favour of the Government.

The provision referred to under clause (b) shall attach to the Collector a statement in the prescribed form annexed to the conditions governing details of these immovable property.

The purchaser shall be bound to carry out the provisions of this clause (b) within ten days from the date of communication to him of the Collector's orders requiring him to do so.

The bond and the mortgage deeds shall be stamped and registered at the expense of the purchaser. He shall be bound to provide a counterpart agreement. The purchaser or his duly authorised person at his own expense shall be responsible for the payment of the stamp duty and the registration fee in cases in which immovable property is mortgaged to the Government.

(d) If the latest deposit exceeds two months' rental, the same will not be refunded till the termination of the lease.

VII. Deposits will be retained in any case in which the Collector refuses to confirm the acceptance of the bid.

VIII. In the case of the day's sale the selling officer will announce, subject to the approval of the Collector, the date, time and place of which will be posted up at the Public Office and the order will be sent to any bidder who gives his name and address to the Collector and will be posted up at the Public Office.

IX. (a) The order of the Collector confirming a bid provisionally accepted by the selling officer must be filed within 24 hours of the date of the sale.

(b) If the Collector considers such bid to be inadequate, he may postpone the order confirming or refusing to confirm the provisional acceptance of the bid, and alternatively, direct that the bid shall be confirmed from the public at which it was first bid, on such date and at such time and place as may be fixed by him. The conditions of sale will remain unchanged unless otherwise directed by the Collector.

Any order passed by the Collector under this clause shall be in the Collector's custody and shall also be notified as the Collector's office.

(c) Any sale ordered to be confirmed under clause (b) shall begin with the bid provisionally accepted by the selling officer at the original sale and in the name of the bidder who offered it. If at such sale a higher bid is made and is provisionally accepted by the selling officer, the bid with which such sale began shall begin. But if no higher bid is accepted by the selling officer the matter shall be referred to the Collector who may give orders confirming the bid provisionally accepted at the original sale or may order that the sale be confirmed from the public at which it was first bid at the original sale, and the order of the Collector shall be final where it is issued by the Board of Revenue for special reasons.

(d) The provisions of clause (c) above shall apply to any sale the continuance of which is directed under this clause.

(e) The bid which has been provisionally accepted by the selling officer shall be withdrawn before a person offers a bid or before orders are passed confirming or refusing to confirm it, and if the bidder demands any amount of the condition, he shall be liable to make good the difference between his bid and any lower bid which may be finally accepted.

X. On the failure of any person to make a deposit or apply for a license under condition VI or to comply with any regulation or to execute any engagement under condition VI, the shop may be made under the order of the District Officer or on a report from the District Officer may be otherwise disposed of by the Collector. In such case the condition will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will forfeit all gain made, as the result of a bid, will be required to make good the difference between the total amount payable for the whole period under the terms of the original bid and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the result. In the latter case, the deposit already made by the defaulting bidder will be refunded and deducted from the loss arising from the result, and the balance of the loss, if any, will be recoverable in the same manner as if it were an amount of lost revenue. Should however the deposits be greater than the loss by result, only such part of the deposits as is necessary to meet loss by result will be refunded and the balance retained to the Government. The defaulting bidder will be responsible for the loss of the Government under the terms of the lease as well as for the proper observance of all the conditions of the lease.

XI. The purchaser of any shop or shops provided in the lease provided for by the Collector of the conditions set forth herein, through a formal license may not have been issued to him. In the event of the purchase of a shop or shops after the date of the license and before the date of the license, the purchaser shall be responsible for the payment of the stamp duty and the registration fee in cases in which immovable property is mortgaged to the Government.

XII. The deposits under condition VI (a) (b) (c) and (d) may be made either in cash or in recognised Government, Port Trust, Municipal or Local Board securities, or by depositing Postal notes or by depositing the deposit certificate obtained from the Provincial Co-operative Bank (Madras Central Union Bank) or from any of the Central Banks approved by the Director of Co-operative Societies. When deposits are made otherwise than in cash, the Collector may demand that they

ARMED GUARDIANSHIP ATTACHED TO TOWN LICENSES IN PORT ST. GEORGE TOWN AND BUCK ISLAND.

The privilege extends only to the sale of any foreign liquor except brandy of Indian origin—foreign spirits and mineral water which is to be consumed on the premises and to the sale for general use the possession of such liquor does not require a license at a time of such sale or such service.

2. SPECIAL GUARDIANSHIP ATTACHMENT TO BUCK ISLAND LICENSES.

1. The privilege extends only to the sale of beer brewed in India to be consumed on the premises and to the sale for general use the possession of such liquor does not require a license at a time of such sale or such service.

2. Every sample bottle containing beer brewed in India and removed out of kegs for sale at the shop shall be conspicuously labelled and headed with the words—“Beer brewed in India.” There should be also on the original certificate in which it is mentioned from the brewery and also on the transferred to any other receipt or receipt transferred for replacement (the certificate) immediately by the licensee at his shop account book before transfer is effected.

3. The possession or sale of alcohol beer by the licensee is prohibited.

GENERAL GUARDIANSHIP ATTACHMENT TO BUCK ISLAND LICENSES ON BUCK ISLAND.

1. The licensee shall obtain, how long such license and at such price as the Collector may think fit.

GENERAL GUARDIANSHIP ATTACHMENT TO GUANA ISLAND LICENSES.

1. The licensee shall be bound by the Stamp Duty Police prescribed by the Commissioner at Georgetown, St. Vincent, dated 15th February 1955, published on page 218-219 of the Port St. George Gazette, dated 24th March 1955, Part II, as subsequently amended and by any additional general or special rules which may from time to time be prescribed and issued.

2. (a) The privilege conferred extends only to the sale of goods, being any other intoxicating drugs prepared from the hemp plant.

(b) The manufacture or possession upon any licensed premises of goods not being in the form of “buds” or “resin” or the consumption of goods at being mixed with tobacco in any form for the purpose of smoking or chewing is prohibited.

3. The licensee must obtain his supply of goods and being from the storehouse at Velupalem or from other shops within the same district as the shop at any account of purchased goods or being held by the Inspector of the police. The Board of Revenue may, however, at any time require any licensee to obtain his supplies from any one specified source or from the stock of Government goods at Velupalem. The licensee in response and to control village must obtain their supplies of goods from the office of the Deputy Tahsildar, Arangan.

4. (a) During the closing month of June (March) no licensee shall supply for retail sale (b) it is necessary to permit the licensee to replenish the remaining stock of the license. Every order for goods in March is the licensee's order and no goods supplied shall be sent through the Supervisor of the retail as the shop is situated, who may, at his discretion, refuse to pay a full and may give for supply only such quantity as he considers reasonable.

(b) If the licensee of a shop the supply to which has been restricted, takes any balance of stock from the previous month, that balance shall be taken into account in regulating the supply to his shop for the month of May. He shall show such balance in his book for the day for the month of May and shall not submit for that month for any quantity of the drug exceeding the prescribed maximum limit of supply for his shop from the balance of stock taken over from the previous month.

5. Orders of stock at the Velupalem storehouse, as long as they have stock in hand, not bound by a provision of their license to supply goods and being to licensed premises on payment, or legal tender, of the value thereof at a rate not exceeding Rs. 2 per cent of 20 value of goods and Rs. 1 per cent of 20 value of being or such other restriction may be fixed about generally or with reference to any particular case. They are also bound to comply with orders for Velupalem drug removal from shopkeepers in accordance with the rules in the order of their removal and with all reasonable steps and to appoint agents at the storehouse to act for them during their absence. If any, should they fail to do so, it will be open to the Government Officer to issue (intoxicating) drugs on their behalf when orders are received during their absence.

6. At the Velupalem storehouse, Government goods are being sold to be sold in licensed premises when there is stock available at a price fixed by the Board. Licensees desiring to purchase this goods at being must pay both the duty and the cost price of the goods less the recovery of the value, in which they also, as a condition. They should forward the necessary receipts evidencing the payment of duty and cost price to the Government Officer who will make the debit from the stock in the storehouse.
